It is ECPA's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect while operating our website. This Privacy Policy applies to ecpa.agrotic.org (hereinafter, "us", "we", or "ecpa.agrotic.org"). We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting personally identifiable information you may provide us through the Website. We have adopted this privacy policy ("Privacy Policy") to explain what information may be collected on our Website, how we use this information, and under what circumstances we may disclose the information to third parties. This Privacy Policy applies only to information we collect through the Website and does not apply to our collection of information from other sources.

This Privacy Policy, together with the Terms and conditions posted on our Website, set forth the general rules and policies governing your use of our Website. Depending on your activities when visiting our Website, you may be required to agree to additional terms and conditions.

Furthermore, ECPA will use your personal data for the application developed exclusively for the congress. Your personal data: Name, Structure and Mail address will be given to members of congress who will flash the QR code on your badge. It is your right to refuse to use your QR code. It is also your right to refuse to transfer your personal data to the application, you can specify it by sending a mail to the organisation.

- Website Visitors

Like most website operators, ECPA collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. ECPA's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how ECPA's visitors use its website. From time to time, ECPA may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website.

ECPA also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged in users and for users leaving comments on <http://ecpa.agrotic.org> blog posts. ECPA only discloses logged in user and commenter IP addresses under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below.

- Gathering of Personally-Identifying Information

Certain visitors to ECPA's websites choose to interact with ECPA in ways that require ECPA to gather personally-identifying information. The amount and type of information that ECPA gathers depends on the nature of the interaction. For example, we ask visitors who sign up for a blog at <http://ecpa.agrotic.org> to provide a username and email address.

- Security

The security of your Personal Information is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

- Links To External Sites

Our Service may contain links to external sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy and terms and conditions of every site you visit.

We have no control over, and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third party sites, products or services.

- Aggregated Statistics

ECPA may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its website. ECPA may display this information publicly or provide it to others. However, ECPA does not disclose your personally-identifying information.

- Cookies

To enrich and perfect your online experience, ECPA uses "Cookies", similar technologies and services provided by others to display personalized content, appropriate advertising and store your preferences on your computer.

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. ECPA uses cookies to help ECPA identify and track visitors, their usage of <http://ecpa.agrotic.org>, and their website access preferences. ECPA visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using ECPA's websites, with the drawback that certain features of ECPA's websites may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

By continuing to navigate our website without changing your cookie settings, you hereby acknowledge and agree to ECPA's use of cookies.

- E-commerce

Those who engage in transactions with ECPA – by purchasing ECPA's services or products, are asked to provide additional information, including as necessary the personal and financial information required to process those transactions. In each case, ECPA collects such information only insofar as is necessary or appropriate to fulfill the purpose of the visitor's interaction with ECPA. ECPA does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below. And visitors can always refuse to supply personally-identifying information, with the caveat that it may prevent them from engaging in certain website-related activities.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, ECPA may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in ECPA's sole discretion. ECPA encourages visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of this site after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
